MIDYEAR CONFERENCE

This past month our President Emma Farmer and Consultant Heidi Hogue had the pleasure to attend the 2022 MidYear Conference in Virginia Beach! These two representatives were asked about their experiences at MidYear and here is what they had to say!

Emma Farmer:

"While attending the NSNA MidYear Conference, I was able to attend the Council for State Presidents, various focus sessions, visit the exhibit hall, and network with numerous other nursing students from across the country. I have been given the chance to use this experience to learn more about running a successful state board of directors. The MidYear Conference was able to emphasize the importance of running a successful state convention and I believe that the use of adequate communication is one of the most important factors that leads to increasing the involvement of nursing students and leaders throughout the state!"

Heidi Hogue:

"The Mid-Year Conference was a wonderful experience . At the conference I was able to attend six sessions that focused on helping the NSNA consultants understand our role and where to find information if we need it. The conference allowed me to network with other consultants. We were able to share ideas and situations that all of us deal with. It was beneficial to meet different people in the organization and put a face with the people you work with. Mid-year was great, and I am excited to attend the National Conference in Nashville in April.
